Take The Slow Ride To Ironstone Amphitheatre

Foghat will be performing at the Ironstone Amphitheatre in Murphys on Saturday, Sept. 7, with Deep Purple and Joyous Wolf also taking the stage.

Foghat members are drummer and founding member Roger Earl, lead guitarist Bryan Bassett, lead vocals and rhythm guitarist Charlie Huhn, and bass player Rodney O'Quinn. The iconic band from the past is rocking just as hard as they did decades ago with their blend of blues, boogie and rock 'n' roll, their music continuing to rock fans everywhere.

Foghat, the Kings of Boogie Rock, have been a mainstay on the music scene since first forming in London in 1971. The band's unique mix of blues, hard rock, boogie and its signature use of slide guitar has earned the band eight gold records, one platinum album and one double platinum record.

Many of their classic hits are still in heavy rotation on classic rock radio years after their release including Fool for the City, I Just Want to Make Love to You, Drivin' Wheel, Stone Blue and, of course, the band's signature hit, Slow Ride.

They've released more than 20 albums over the years, most of which feature the band's unrelenting in-your-face hard rock crunch mixed with the blues, a genre of music the band remains passionate about to this day. They continue to tour non-stop, to the delight of both long-time fans and a younger generation of concertgoers who appreciate and enjoy the band's music and legacy.

Kicking off the epic rock-n-roll concert under the stars is Joyous Wolf. They are a rock band from Southern California that was formed in 2014 by vocalist Nick Reese, guitarist Blake Allard, bassist Greg Braccio, and drummer Robert Sodaro.

Deep Purple headlines the Long Goodbye Tour which will include over 25 dates across North America including the stop in Mur-

Foghat will rock the stage at Ironstone Amphitheatre on Saturday, Sept. 7 at 7 p.m.

With a body of work spanning seven decades, Deep Purple has helped pioneer and define the hard rock genre while progressively moving into new areas to keep their sound fresh and attract new fans to the legions who have remained loyal since the band's inception.

September Events Set At Riverbank Library

The Riverbank Library has Story Time, crafts, and Art Lab scheduled in September.

Story Time starts back up in September and will be offered on Mondays at 10:30 a.m. with Bilingual Story Time on Tuesdays at 10:30 a.m.

A special event will be offered on Monday, Sept. 9 when Mayor Richard O'Brien will read to preschool kids at 11 a.m., after regular Story Time.

For crafts, guests can enjoy Autumn Tree Whirligigs made out of paper plates on Tuesday, Sept. 3 at 3:30 p.m. The monthly Art Lab is on Tuesday, Sept. 10 at 3:30 p.m. The kids will learn to make leaf relief out of leaves, foil, cardboard and paint. For ages 9 and up there will be Crochet Water Balloons on Tuesday, Sept. 17 at 3:30 p.m.

The Teen Book Club is meeting Friday Sept. 20 at 3:30 p.m. to discuss the book 'The Iron Trial' by Holly Black. Light refreshments are provided by the Friends of the Riverbank Library. The Riverbank Book Club for adults is on Tuesday, Sept. 24 at 4 p.m. and there will be a discussion on the book 'The Traveler's Gift' by Andy Andrews.

The library will be starting a Teen Health and Wellness program led by a local teen Avni Parmar. The first of this series will be on Self-Care and will be held on Sept. 20 at 3 p.m., before the Teen Book Club.

OUT AND ABOUT

Out and About is your guide to upcoming events in and around the Riverbank area.

The Riverbank Parks and Recreation Department is seeking volunteers for the 2019 Halloween Haunted Hayride. Volunteers for this event will plan and operate Scare Sites at the late October festivities. Planning a scare site at the event can be a lot of fun for families, groups, or organizations, and also gives you the chance to win the first place prize of $500. Second Place will receive $100 and Third Place will get $50. For those interested there will be a Haunted Hayride Volunteer Meeting on Thursday, Sept. 12 at 6 p.m. in the Rotary Picnic area at Jacob Myers Park. For more information or questions call 209-863-7150 or email jpetit@riverbank.org.

Golden Agers weekly dances are open to those 50 and older from throughout the Central Valley and are hosted at the Riverbank Community Center, 3600 Santa Fe St., Riverbank. First time guests are admitted free. The annual membership fee is $12 and each Wednesday members pay $5 and non-members can enjoy a few hours of music and dancing for $6. The Golden Agers meet from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Make plans to attend the Jacob Myers Park Ride-Run-Hike Trail Potluck Fundraiser at the Brenda Athletic Club, 200 Norwegian Ave., Modesto. Date for the fundraiser, which is sponsored by the Friends of Jacob Myers Park, is Saturday, Sept. 14 from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. Cost is $7 for adults, $5 for kids under 12. There will be an appetizer bar, live music, a potluck buffet and barbecued chicken, swimming, pool volleyball and $1 raffle tickets available for various prize drawings. A beer and wine tasting is offered for an additional $5 fee. To get involved as a sponsor, contact Jim Sughrue at 209-380-5704 or jdsughrue@gmail.com. You can also call the Brenda Athletic Club, 209-571-2582, for more information. Sponsors will receive free event tickets and donor recognition, as well as updates on the ongoing trail project.
